

Tuesday - 27 June 1950

1. Received call from Mr. Francis Flanagan, Chief Counsel for the Investigation Subcommittee of the Senate Expenditures Committee, requesting that a senior official of this Agency testify on the general problem as to whether we consider homosexuals to be a security risk. Called Mr. Flanagan and asked that an appearance be put off for a week or so until the Director can take care of the matter.
2. In response to call from Mr. Griffin, Rep. Vorys' office, informed him that the nearest consulate to Bitolj, Macedonia, Yugoslavia, was the Embassy at Belgrade, with George V. Allen the Ambassador and R. Borden Reams Counselor of the Embassy.
3. Meeting re Loyalty Case #15.